unchanging nature, clarity has no need to spin out into descriptive frameworks. True clarity is recognized by its inexhaustible benefit, individually and collectively.

Make no mistake about it, clarity is recognized in its obvious benefit. In clarity, all responsibilities and commitments to others are honored. If a change in relationship is needed, it is carried out in a respectful and highly beneficial fashion, honoring everyone completely. Clarity is not an excuse for hurtful behavior. Out of control disharmonious behavior indicates the need for the Four Mainstays; it does not indicate stable clarity. Never be confused about this. Clarity is all-beneficial and solution-oriented, displaying benefit, prosperity and generosity right here.

The trainer is of enormous support. They have successfully benefited from clarity in many life circumstances. They completely understand where you are at.

Everything is outshone in clarity—the potent pure luminosity of beneficial qualities and activities: All the various strategies, actions, and methods of viewpoints are subsumed in the beneficial qualities and activities of clarity-intelligence. The most comprehensive order is clarity intelligence evident in sprawling, free-wheeling spontaneous beneficial qualities and activities.

Hey!—Clarity normalizes all viewpoints so there is no need for fantasy worlds or elaborations of any kind. Everyday clarity is where it's at. Waking, sleeping, making love, defecating, working, eating—whatever—clarity is where it's at. Hey!—This short moment of simple, radical clarity right here is the means to link in to current clarity intelligence. Press the clarity button, again and again, until clarity is obviously continuous!

Shining forth spontaneously and effortlessly, the intrinsic intelligence of each viewpoint expands into clarity intelligence instead of endless stories. Clarity is a world of always increasing spontaneous benefit, prosperity and generosity, pervading all of life and reality, equally and evenly. The consistent ongoing fulfillment of beneficial intent is society's powerful momentum. In each short moment of clarity, humans seal the beneficial nature of current and future society.

Conventional identity offers no result of complete mental and emotional stability. There is no map leading to that goal. The Four Mainstays provide the comprehensive map showing the powerful skillful means for increasingly beneficial, prosperous, generous society as well as stable and powerful individual identity. Yeah!—Clarity identity is where it's at.

Once super-intelligent clarity nature is confirmed, it quickly takes over as the only fundamental identity of everyone and everything. Its wondrous ride offers peak pleasure increasingly, putting a permanent smile on each face and assured ease in each stride.

In one short moment of clarity, self loathing and all related viewpoints are understood and released, opening truly powerful, beneficial clarity identity that outshines all current viewpoints, all past viewpoints and all future viewpoints. Viewpoints have no hold and are like space. Space is ungraspable. Similarly, viewpoints are ungraspable.

Humans have been living in a fantasy world of descriptions which validate a strictly causal reality in which it is impossible to have complete mental and emotional stability. This cause and effect fantasy world is like a hologram or a mirage and is a primitive existence when compared to clarity intelligence, which provides complete mental and emotional stability, inexhaustible benefit and complete solutions in all situations. As society evolves due to clarity, many current ways of living will become obsolete. This moment is unimaginably stable when lived from clarity intelligence.

In clarity's greatly expansive all-beneficial nature, the beneficial energy once focused only on relatives and friends opens up to include everyone. What a relief! Our generous display of beneficial qualities and activities for all is the very best connection we can have with our loved ones as it offers the power of example of a human being endowed with clarity intelligence. This is the greatest contribution we can make to our loved ones and to society. Each short moment of clarity, sharply accelerates the benefit of all.

Hey!—clarity blows open all viewpoints into clarity intelligence. When viewpoints are expanded by clarity, a new intelligence comes about for human society, one that is inaccessible when relying on current viewpoints. Clarity intelligence takes everything in at once; it has an all-embracing, beneficial, direct knowledge. A boon of benefit, prosperity and generosity opens up in this moment of unending clarity! The here-and-now is where everyone is at, filled with benefit!

The greatest addiction of society is belief in the independent nature, power and influence of points of view. Believing that points of view have their own nature, power and influence independent of clarity is the great addiction. Instinctive clarity outshines the need to roll out stories about points of view as though they have an independent nature. Clarity is an intelligence that offers profoundly beneficial solutions right now, individually and collectively. For example, clarity has the power to do away with a lifetime of disturbing emotional patterns. Wow!

Clarity is indestructible, unchanging and unending naturalization of the great high sought in any point of view, including alcohol and other substances. By the power of truly real clarity, it is impossible to be addicted to any point of view.

Relying on clarity rather than addiction to viewpoints is a real boon of truly real sanity that brings bright perspective and a balanced view. Clarity outshines the addictive impulse to elaborate viewpoints into pleasant or unpleasant stories. Clarity is right here, always in each here-and-now, with no special points of view associated with stable identity.

As superb clarity and its treasures dawn, assurance is obvious, and viewpoints are outshone. The luminosity of clarity shines brightly within each here-and-now. In clarity, everyone profits at all times in one way or another.

Hey!—all viewpoints are outshone by lively clarity intelligence. Instinctive comprehension of clarity unleashes super-potent power and intelligence.
