

Human Identity Summit Part 4

Key Instructions in Beneficial Clarity

Key instructions elicit potent clarity's benefit. Clarity and benefit are inseparable like a crystal ball and its luminosity.

Clarity deals not with the name tag of viewpoints, but with its own innate perfection and spontaneous generosity. Name tags applied to the here-and-now are outshone by beneficial clarity.

The liveliness of clarity is trained up by pressing key buttons provided by clarity itself. These key instructions completely confirm clarity's obviousness in all viewpoints, expanding the power of beneficial clarity, infinitely.

The potent intelligence of clarity is reflected in the liveliness of the here-and-now spontaneously self-releasing in tremendous benefit to all. Generosity and prosperity are the outpouring of clarity. Spontaneously beneficial, generous, prosperous clarity is set free to benefit human society and the world. Clarity's generosity is the basis of all the gifts expressed by body, speech, mind, qualities and activities. Clarity is required to bring these gifts to life. Clarity opens the expansive treasury of benefit, generosity and prosperity.

The words, sounds and images of the here-and-now express innate clarity so there is nowhere else to look. The pure logic of the here-andnow is thoroughly perfect, all-powerful complete confirmation of the total stability at the basis of reality.

Look! Look! The here-and-now beneficially slips in and out on its own. Benefit, prosperity and generosity are the natural state of collaborative clarity.

Sounds are the song of clarity, pervasive clarity announcing itself. The natural spontaneity of the here-and-now is the ultimate identity, the nectar of meaning—saturated beneficial potency.

Clarity is the only fundamental basis of identity. In clarity, you carry on, remaining as you are, strong and stable. There is no other identity to be had. Clarity's prime imperative is indestructible uncontrived benefit.

The here-and-now has never been before and will never be again. The here-and-now cannot be captured or examined by any mechanism. Yet each transparent here-and-now is super-complete, totally present in clarity. Clarity is the fundamental identity of anything or anyone. Each moment of clarity is the greatest investment deposit to be made by anyone during any moment of life. This investment alone will return riches beyond wildest imagination.

Know clarity as yourself—your sole, indestructible, reliable identity. Its power to consistently fulfill beneficial intent is your own. All human viewpoints are liberated in a mass of clarity intelligence settling deeply into human society. There is no distinction between clarity and human intelligence.

So utterly simple—clarity is the embodiment of benefit, prosperity and generosity.
