

Human Identity Summit Part 6

Death and Other Afflictive Viewpoints

When the utter lucidity of death is initially obvious, it is important not to stray from lucid clarity and to simply relax and allow it to be as it is—a blissful expanse free of misery.

The indestructible Four Mainstays—clarity, trainer, training and community—carry over seamlessly into death as a blissful expanse, without separation. You are completely at ease and cared for, without even the need for a body, breathing or communication. The signs of death appear as increase and evidence of the potency of clarity. This is easy if you have been introduced to clarity and practiced even slightly.

Immediately upon death there is the absolute resolution of all viewpoints in primordial bliss, bright and aware. All attachment and clinging go forever. Past viewpoints are clear and open without a trace. Present viewpoints are clear and open without a trace. Future viewpoints are clear and open without a trace. This is the tremendous release into blissful brightness and joy. By knowing right now exactly what death is—the powerful blissfulness and joy of total clarity—everyone is prepared for death.

Always expect death to come at any time. Simply carry on remaining composed as clarity. This is the proper attitude. If strong panic and fearful images appear during life or death, utter lucidity immediately devours them as its own blissful energy.

By the power of clarity assurance in all viewpoints, death comes easily knowing that all images arise as in a hologram or rainbow, vanishing naturally without a trace. So right now rest assuredly in clarity as afflictive states appear. The clarity you rest in is shining forth within the afflictive state, and is not looking at it from a distance, like a cat watching a mouse. In instinctive clarity, at the moment of death there is no going from one place to another. There is simply a super-complete and blissful bright state, which is free from someone going somewhere.

When dying do not worry about what will happen to your possessions, including your body. Let whoever wants them take them, like something without an owner. Simply rest blissfully, as primordial clarity. There will be a buoyant and light feeling, like space pouring into space or sunlight in air. Since nothing appears that is not free in your own place of utterly lucid clarity, rest vividly without thinking of anything whatsoever.

When the breathing body stops, the great luminosity arises, like a clear sky dawning—your own nature. You rest as this continuity of perfection. Therefore, it is best to be weary of identification with points of view now, and decide you have had enough. Thus come to terms right now with the importance of recognizing that disturbing emotions are simply the names of clarity's tremendous power.

Relax in the power of clarity and carry on realizing the power and meaning of viewpoints being free of limiting influence. Viewpoints arise, endure, and subside naturally like an invisible breeze in space. With authentic reliance on the power of clarity, disturbing states are undermined.

The principle of the beneficial power of clarity is in its surge of viewpoints. Carry on instinctively, recognizing ordinary clarity as the surge of each here-and-now. It is impossible for clarity to become undermined by viewpoints, so just relax like the powerful ease of the great ocean, filled with vital energy and power regardless of ups and downs.

With instinctive clarity as the single focus, no countermeasure or curative fantasy is necessary to effect relief, and so antidotes to disturbing states are done away with. Because "you" are the surge of clarity itself, excessive interest in viewpoints is subsumed in very vivid clarity and their stories and patterns reside in their innate beneficial power and energy.

Because the simple lucidity of clarity undermines the very idea of existence of non-recognition of clarity, non-recognition is thoroughly cut at the root. Because sensory impressions and visual images are fueled only by clarity, by sustaining its essence, they are recognized to be the power of clarity.

Similarly, sounds of all kinds, evident due to clarity are all recognized equally as self-sounds of clarity and are like an echo unfolding in air—pure, clear and without effect. Thus sensory impressions, visual images and sounds are the powerful dynamic energy of clarity.

Due to this there are no compelling stories or emotional reactions whatsoever and the disturbing aspect of viewpoints is exhausted completely. There is complete power shining from within all descriptive frameworks. Viewpoints are the surging beneficial power of clarity itself, and this is the crucial point.

By the power of clarity, all subtle points of view are settled into a natural state of indestructible stability, so they do not need to be forced to enter into a stable state by applying counter activities designed to oppose them as some kind of danger or threat. When all viewpoints are left to flow on by, they ramp up to their natural potency. Everything is perceived as the power of clarity rather than as manifestations of confusion, disturbance, affliction or reification.

Instinctive clarity is the supercharged beneficial power devouring viewpoints. Instinctive clarity demonstrates power in its actual expression as immediate circumstances. This is complete power in all experience, complete perceptual openness in all experience, freedom in immediate perception.

The power of directly encountering all disturbing mental, emotional, physical and experiential states as the actual potent force of beneficial power allows you to plan for death without shrinking away from it. Simply, injury, sickness, aging and death are another series of emphatic statements of the actual potent force of clarity's all-consuming, indestructible power. By the power of clarity, all viewpoints are raw and real clarity power. The intensity of allowing all viewpoints to be as they are breaks through to obvious clarity at all times.

Letting all points of view be as they actually are, there is a super charged expanse of intelligent benefit, superpower and surety, the emptying of all points of view of their ignorant meaning forever, and the great launching of universal benefit, potency and accord.

The Four Mainstays are the indestructible vehicle comprised of the clarity body, speech, mind, qualities and activities, living boldly and freely, aware that death can come at any moment, completely prepared and relaxed about it, super-intelligent clarity the only relation, purpose and meaning in all viewpoints. Right now, without hesitation, carry on extracting and totally enjoying the power of all viewpoints.
