

Human Identity Summit Part 9

Potency

The vast bliss expanse, very potent intelligence—the most profound of the profound intelligence pervading all points of view and all fields of knowledge is right here. Potent intelligence is accessed only through non-contrivance of viewpoints, allowing all viewpoints to flow on by, like a line drawn in mid-air—pristine sky in pristine sky, without object or support.

This freedom is found in the equal bliss pleasure of all viewpoints, the opening of human society to a new way of life. Each moment of clarity prevents the return to societal suffering. Yes, each moment of clarity is that powerful.

Non-contrivance, letting viewpoints flow on by, is the installation process of potent intelligence for society, individually and collectively. We see that we are absolutely okay, powerful, clarity is always on. This potent software is running brilliantly as it is engineered into our nature, making it impossible for outdated programs to operate, giving a thorough cut to their energy supply in each short moment.

The short moment expands to long moments and then days, months, years, or even lifetimes of potent benefit. This is our birthright and direction. All other information we have learned is incorrect and inadequate.

Very potent clarity's outcomes are exceptional and always provide unimaginable benefit and gifted human life, providing each moment the pure potency of practical clear intelligence. The complete power in each viewpoint soothes all tensions and stories rolling this way and that with their innate indestructible stability. Simple clarity relieves the burden of causal descriptions of the here-and-now, illuminating insight into reality.

Our past understanding of sexuality and erotics is just another program that can be quickly uninstalled after years of laborious installation, radically uninstalled in clarity's thorough blowing open of continuous pleasure in all moments.

How people experience and express viewpoints that are described as sexual or erotic, especially the feelings or urges related to pleasure, are so simple after all. This includes not only the state of arousal and anticipation of pleasure, but also the attempt through various means to incite and satisfy those feelings. By the potency of clarity intelligence alone, all these attitudes and incidents—past, present and future—are sorted out for the benefit of all.

Total clarity always arises with the emphatic gesture of the benefit of all. The gesture of gratitude and respect ensures the benefit and deep caring for everyone we connect with. Clarity asks "How will this impulse to pleasure be an energy that benefits all in its expression?"

The pleasure drive is based on a program we have been running comprised of thoughts, emotions, sensations and other experience that seem to be associated with pleasure. When we examine them from the clarity perspective, we cannot find a location, really, where they are coming from, or even where they are now, or where they end. This is conclusive experiential evidence that the pleasure point of view cannot be found to have an independent power or force to make anyone or anything act in any particular way. Rather, it is like space pouring into space.

Sexual viewpoints, like all others, have no nature independent of clarity intelligence. By relying on the blast of clarity rather than on sexual viewpoints, we unleash a healthy, vast erotic view that is filled with enormous beneficial energy. The blind bondage of sexual programming is set free in an expanse of super-pleasure at all times, night and day. Even in indulgence, avoidance, or replacement of erotic viewpoints we carefully rely on short moments and the other Mainstays and their clear power to expose the benefit of all the course of our actions.

Seeking sexual pleasure and orgasmic relief as an end in itself, slips into moment to moment pleasure with no cause. This gives us true erotic dignity, integrity and great freedom of choice. Secret erotic lifestyles that leave us shamed and questioning our basic worth are opened up to clarity potency and wise input adds to the ease of all situations and the secure knowledge that the future is optimistic regardless of its offering. thoughts, emotions, sensations and other experiences is relaxed into pure, spontaneous, open, indivisible clarity. Sexual and erotic excellence resides only in clarity spontaneity, nowhere else.

Deep-seated viewpoints burst open to instinctive love-bliss power. Love's super-potency is the unavoidable bind of pleasure found in the potent view within points of view.

Instinctively, potent clarity displays immediate powerful benefit. In clarity is discovered the fulfillment of love, pleasure and intimacy. Clarity is the dependable means to initiate and satisfy indestructible pleasure in all dimensions of living. Now it is possible to enjoy human sexuality in a free, relaxed and responsible way.

In the great permission of clarity, all sexual viewpoints are normalized; the erotic impulse is entirely elective and selective based on spontaneous natural mutual ethics that serve the benefit of all. Clarity enables human society to subsume primitive sexual drives and urges in an ultimate erotic burst of unbridled benefit, prosperity and generosity.

Clarity is relied upon to display its immediate power of pure pleasure and total erotic fulfillment, equalizing all erotic viewpoints—positive, negative and neutral.

In actual erotic experience, spontaneously rely on the clarity blast as all viewpoints flow on by, none better or worse. Freedom in immediate sexual viewpoints is the only source of true intimacy, satisfaction and fulfillment. In this way, we open completely within all viewpoints to responsive erotic play and a potent surge of pleasure and benefit of all that spontaneously flows throughout all aspects of our life. We really get intimate with all viewpoints and this allows us true societal intimacy, personally and collectively. We're all running on the same super-clarity bandwidth.

In any moment, all notions of clarity are blown open, without any effort at all, releasing unparalleled intelligence, beneficial power and ease of action. Clarity is the current surge of viewpoints, and now it is this surge, never settling down in anything, always swelling with vitality, potency and indestructibility. The bright view of clarity is present in all viewpoints, so simple, so easy.

Instinctively recognizing the inexpressible clarity factor, blasts through intricate frameworks of ignorance about human sexuality. Clarity cherishes viewpoints as its potency of great pleasure and benefit. It is instinctively recognized that clarity provides increasing pleasure potency.

Shifting erotic events are the energy of potent clarity intelligence. A decision is made that there is nothing other than that. Human sexuality is clarity surging.

We know how to carry all erotic circumstances in the indestructible clarity vehicle. Instinctive clarity blows open confusion about human erotics, ending ignorance forever in the openness and spontaneous presence of pure pleasure in all circumstances. Free of confusion about human sexuality, clarity society initiates sane, healthy eroticism for the first time, disentangling it completely from social, religious, educational and personal injunctions that attempt to control erotic conduct and rights by restricting it to the sexual domain and a list of do's and don'ts. Potent pleasure and benefit is not restricted to any particular set of experiences and is self-arising in all experience.

Through clear discernment we question the whole point of view of giving over our clarity potency to authority figures who have established all the do's and don'ts about erotic identity. We're perfectly capable of establishing a beneficial clarity identity as the vantage of our incredible human society. We do not need to rely on old, unclear ideas.

Clarity, the fundamental identity of human society, is introduced at the point where the mirage of viewpoints is vanished, is done, and beneficial society manifests stable, super-clear, spontaneously ethical, skillful, naturally fulfilling beneficial intent. In clarity, benefit, prosperity and generosity are the prime and only directive. Human society's collective clarity is the resounding strength of individual and total society, maintaining its blissful fabric and potency, without any effort, without anything needing to be done.

Clarity potency normalizes all viewpoints, befriending them in ordinary, everyday love and benefit.
